Quotations:

- 1- It is not always the same thing to be a good man and a good citizen. - Aristotle
- 2- The strength of the Constitution lies entirely in the determination of each citizen to defend it. Only if every single citizen feels duty bound to do his share in this defense are the constitutional rights secure. - Albert Einstein.
- 3- Bad officials are elected by good citizens who do not vote. - George Jean Nathan.
- 4- If I knew something that would serve my country but would harm mankind, I would never reveal it; for I am a citizen of humanity first and by necessity, and a citizen of France second, and only by accident. - Charles de Montesquieu.
- 5- We all have an obligation as citizens of this earth to leave the world a healthier, cleaner, and better place for our children and future generations. - Blythe Danner.
- 6- Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world; indeed, it's the only thing that ever has. - Margaret Mead.
- 7- The most important thing an institution does is not to prepare a student for a career but for a life as a citizen. - Frank Newman.
- 8- There is much more to being a patriot and a citizen than reciting the pledge or raising a flag. - Jesse Ventura.
- 9- Democracy is never a thing done. Democracy is always something that a nation must be doing. - Archibald MacLeish.
- 10- No one is born a good citizen; no nation is born a democracy. Rather, both are processes that continue to evolve over a lifetime. Young people must be included from birth. A society that cuts off from its youth severs its lifeline. - Kofi Annan.
- 11- Ask not what your country can do for you – ask what you can do for your country. - J.F. Kennedy
- 12- The future is best decided by ballots, not bullets. - Ronald Reagan.
- 13- The American ideal is not that we all agree with each other, or even like each other. It is that we will respect each other's rights, especially the right to be different, and that, at the end of the day, we will understand that we are one people, one country, and one community, and that our wellbeing is inextricably bound up with the well-being of each and every one of our fellow citizens. - C. Everett Koop.
- 14- We'd do well to remember that at the end of the day, the law doesn't defend us; we defend the law. And when it becomes contrary to our morals, we have both the right and the responsibility to rebalance it toward just ends. - Edward Snowden.
- 15- Always vote for principle though you may vote alone, and you may cherish the sweetest reflection that your vote is never lost. - John Quincy Adams.
